5TH ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Regional Governance and the Asia-Pacific Balance of Power

Challenges & Opportunities for Peace and Prosperity

THAMMASAT UNIVERSITY, BANGKOK, MARCH 9-11

Hestia is an annual interdisciplinary conference that explores issues of international and sociopolitical importance from critical perspectives. In recent years many have begun to question whether the world is shifting from a system of US hegemony to a new multipolar global order. If such a system arises, will it be a pathway for peace, such as the recent initiatives between Iran and Saudi Arabia, or will growing tensions, such as those surrounding the status of Taiwan, lead to even further conflict between competing powers?

What will such a shift mean for rising regional powers? Do the dangers of transient instability outweigh the potential gains from a more equitable balance of power? We hope you will join us to consider these and other questions at our 5th conference at Thammasat University in the beautiful city of Bangkok.
